Biography

Rev. Dr. Lucretia R. Facen is an ordained Elder in the United Methodist Church. She earned undergraduate and Master of Science degrees from the University of North Texas before responding to God's call to ministry in 1997. She completed the Master of Divinity degree at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, where she received the Robert Weatherford Award for Excellence in Preaching, and later earned the Doctor of Ministry degree from United Theological Seminary.

Dr. Facen has served in pastoral leadership for more than two decades. Her appointments include Senior Pastor of Jubilee United Methodist Church, Associate Pastor of Worship and Welcoming Ministries at Hamilton Park United Methodist Church, Senior Pastor of New World United Methodist Church in a cross-racial appointment, and Senior Pastor of historic St. Paul United Methodist Church in Dallas.

Within the United Methodist Church, Dr. Facen has served on the Board of Ordained Ministry, as a preaching mentor for ministry candidates, mentor for the Rural Pastor's Cohort, and Chair of the African American Clergy Fellowship. She currently serves as District Superintendent of the Metro-East District of the Horizon Texas Conference with oversight of 64 churches in Dallas County.

As a speaker and workshop presenter, Dr. Facen brings practical pastoral wisdom to church growth and outreach, cross-cultural collaboration, women in pastoral and leadership roles, sermon preparation and delivery, and the spiritual work of embracing the person God created you to be. She has been a guest speaker at more than 30 churches.

Her preaching is deeply influenced by the legacy of her parents, both pastors, and by a lifelong love for God's Word and God's people.
